For Immediate Release:

Unite for HER Donates $28,000 to Living Beyond Breast Cancer

West Chester, PA – May 13, 2010 Unite for HER will present a donation check to Living Beyond Breast Cancer (LBBC) at their annual Yoga Unites event Sunday, May 16. The check will be presented to LBBC Chief Executive Officer, Jean Sachs, at 9 a.m. on the steps of the Philadelphia Museum of Art. The funds were raised earlier this year at the Pink Invitational~Gymnasts Unite competition. This benefit gymnastics meet is the primary fundraiser for the West Chester-based Unite for HER nonprofit organization.

The founder of Unite for HER, breast cancer survivor Sue Weldon, choose LBBC be the recipient of the event proceeds. Sue was recently quoted as saying, “Living Beyond Breast Cancer is incredibly unique, for it supports and empowers women in all phases of their diagnosis, treatment and recovery. Through their many programs, events, and conferences they address the critical challenges and needs that women face, providing education and knowledge for a plan of continued healing and restoration.”

The Unite for HER mission is to make a positive difference in the lives of women and girls by supporting and providing breast cancer programs and initiatives that educate, empower and restore. The funds they raise will benefit local and national breast cancer initiatives that also include Breast Cancer Wellness Days, awareness and educational materials for girls and young women, and the Gymnasts Unite Grant program.
